PUBLIC BUILDING BILL WAS PASSED

Important Measure Railroaded Through House Last Night.

CARRIES BIG APPROPRIATION

Tennessee Congressman Protested Against Action on the Bill—Session Lasted Until Early Morning—For Twenty Millions.

Washington, June 20.—The public building bill carrying $19,235,500 in appropriations for increasing the cost of public buildings, etc., besides $3,095,000 for continuing contracts, was passed by the House at 12:50 o'clock tonight by a viva voce vote.

The bill had been awaited with lively interest and when its reading was begun at 11:55 P. M., there was wild applause among the members. The public building bill, the so-called "pork barrel" of the session, was railroaded through the House in less than an hour.

Mr. Sims, of Tennessee, declaring that the House was running wild on omnibus appropriation bills protested that the measure carried millions for the District of Columbia. His speech blocking action on the bill was frequently interrupted with ironic cries of "louder" and "vote."

"I appeal for order," demanded the Tennesseean.

"The chair will be in order," stentoriously called the Speaker who then corrected himself by insisting that the House be in order.

"Don't you think it's worth $20,000, 000 to us to listen to a speech from you on this bill at this hour of the night?" demanded Mr. Burke, of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sims, proceeding, declared that the billion dollar Congress would soon be a two billion dollar Congress if appropriations were continued at the present rate.

Mr. Sulzer protested in the name of the tax payers of America against jamming a $20,000,000 bill through under suspension of the rules.

"I'd like to see a roll call on this bill," he shouted. "I want to vote against it." On a demand by Mr. Sulzer that a roll call be had only five members arose to indicate they favored such a course.

STATEHOOD BILL SIGNED.

Distinguished Party at White House When Taft Affixed Name.

Washington, June 20.—President Taft signed the Statehood bill at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of Postmaster General Hitchcock, Senator Beveridge, and Representative Hamilton, chairman, respectively, of the Senate and House committees on territories; Delegate Cameron, of New Mexico; James T. Williams, Jr., editor of the Tucson Citizen and several others.

Two pens were used in affixing the signature. "Approved, William H. Taft" was signed with a solid gold pen, made to order by Postmaster General Hitchcock, who has done much hard work in putting the bill through.

"Taft" was written with a big eagle feather pen, presented by Delegate Cameron, and "June 20th, 1910," was written with the gold pen. The eagle feather was carried to the White House in a big leather case.

After the President had affixed his signature, Secretary Norton used a blotter and gave it to Delegate Cameron, who wanted it for a souvenir. Both men have been friends for years. As he handed the blotting paper to the delegate, Secretary Norton remarked that he took occasion to reward the delegate for saving his life fifteen years ago.

The story was told to President Taft. One night 15 years ago while traveling along in the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Mr. Norton became ill. When he could crawl no further he sank down expecting to die. A miner discovered him and hurried to Mr. Cameron's home for help. Mr. Norton was taken to the Andrews' home where he recovered.

KITTLE PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

Indicted With Patten in Cotton Pool Case.

New York, June 20.—Charles A. Kittle, member of the banking firm of S. H. Pell & Co. who was indicted on Friday last with James A. Patten and six others on charges of conspiracy as members of an alleged cotton pool, appeared before United States Judge Hand today and pleaded not guilty. Kittle was given until Thursday to change his plea or make any desired motion. He furnished the $5,000 bail demanded.

Adrian H. Larkin, counsel for Kittle, told Judge Hand that he would like to examine the minutes taken before the grand jury and that he might possibly make a motion to quash the indictment which he styled as an extraordinary document. He said in looking over the facts in the case he found that Kittle was the victim of a "pen and ink artist," as his name had been written in the indictment after it was printed. He said this was an afterthought and was evidently done because Kittle refused to answer questions before the grand jury.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Yesterday's Bride

MARRIAGE OF THEODORE, JR. THE EDINBURGH CONFERENCE

Miss Eleanor Alexander Butler Bride of Young Roosevelt—Prominent Event Solemnized in New York—Wedding Scene.

New York, June 20.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander were married at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. Bride and bridegroom knelt on white satin cushions for their response. The bride's voice was inaudible, but young Roosevelt said "I do" with an emphasis that brought many smiles among the guests.

Long before the hour set for the wedding the neighborhood of the church was packed with crowds of the curious. A special detail of 100 policemen held them at a distance. Over the shoulders of the officers peeped milliners and dress makers, note books in hand.

Miss Alexander was escorted to the church by the same mounted officer, an old cavalryman, of Spanish war days, who rode at the elbow of Theodore Roosevelt last Saturday in the land parade from the Battery to Central Park; and when she came out as Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., he saw her safely to the reception given after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, an aunt of the bride.

Conspicuous among the guests were 12 Rough Riders in full uniform. More beautiful floral decorations than those of the church today are not remembered at any of the brilliant weddings to which a sophisticated city has grown used.

Col. Roosevelt sat with his wife and their children, Quentin and Archie. Behind them sat Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. Mrs. Longworth wore a white chiffon gown, trimmed with black and pale yellow with a big black and yellow hat and a profusion of jewelry.

The bride wore a high necked gown of soft white satin and dulle, richly trimmed with duchesse lace, which had been worn by the bride's mother and grandmother at her wedding. Her train was three yards long and her veil fell to her waist.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Addison Alexander, gave her away. Mrs. Alexander wore a pale yellow chiffon gown with a Louis XV. train of blue and gold brocade and a large hat trimmed with a single, very large ostrich plume.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Snowden A. Pahnstock, who was Miss Elizabeth Betron until a few weeks ago, when Miss Alexander was maid of honor at her wedding. She wore a bodice of dull pink taffeta and carried forget-me-nots. The bride's maids were Miss Ethel Roosevelt, the bridegroom's sister; the Misses Harriet and Janet Alexander, cousins of the bride and Miss Jean W. Delano and Miss Jessie Williamson Drake. Kermit Roosevelt, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. They wore leg-horn hats trimmed with pink roses, white chiffon gowns with point d'esprit fichus, caught up with blue ribbons. The ushers were George Emilen Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, cousins of the bridegroom, and Geo. F. B. Roche, Hamilton Fish, Jr., Fulton Cutting, John W. Cutler, Grafton Chapman, Elliot Cutler and E. Morgan Gilbert.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders, great uncle of the bride.

While the guests assembled there was an hour of music by an orchestra of 50 pieces, all the selections for which were chosen by the bride herself, an accomplished musician.

Commission of Missions and Governments Made Interesting Report. Urges Action Upon the Congo Question—Features.

Edinburgh, Scotland, June 20.—The Commission on Missions and Governments concluded its report, presented to the World's Missionary Conference today, with an assertion that "the claims of humanity and the rights of missions have been so flagrantly and continuously violated by the government of the Congo State (now taken over by Belgium), that an appeal for action should be made by the Conference to all the Powers which are signatories to the General Act of Berlin."

"We have no hesitation in asking the Conference to make a decided pronouncement upon the Congo question," the report says; "This new State came into being under conditions which make the whole family of nations more directly responsible for its existence than is usually the case; they did not merely accept an accomplished fact, but lent an active hand to the accomplishment. This makes it doubly imperative that the Conference should present a full weight of Christian sentiment, effectually voiced, to overcome the natural and usual commendable indisposition of governments to meddle."

The Commission heads the list of its findings with an expression of gratitude for the large amount of mutual helpfulness found to exist between so many missions and governments. Concerning the right of entry for Christian Missions the report says:

"Inasmuch as the results of missionary enterprises are now so evident and have extended over so long a period that their general beneficent effect is demonstrated, we think that it may reasonably be asked of all Christian governments that they should use their good offices with those of other nations for the free admission and exercise of missionary endeavor, where such admission is not now granted; and further, that such interposition may be justified to the governments, not on grounds of religion, but upon the broad ground of humanity, on account of the beneficent influence of Missions, and upon the common right of mankind to receive such benefits."

The report continues: "In view of the enormous influence exercised by Christian nations over races of less developed civilization and lower material power, we would express the earnest hope that a growing sense of responsibility for the right use of this influence may control the actions of both governments and individuals; and in particular we would express our conviction that where territories peopled by such races are under the rule of Christian Powers, the prime duty of such Powers is the education and development of these races."

"Evidence having been laid before us that in many countries—occasionally even in countries under the control of European Powers—native Christians (Continued on Page Eight)

Cowles is a sister of Theodore Roosevelt, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Roosevelt, Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Mrs. Meyer, Mayor Gaynor and Mrs. Gaynor.

There were 800 presents to the bride but they were not made public. Those acknowledged by the donors were a diamond medallion from Mrs. Russell Sage; a diamond tiara from Mrs. C. B. Alexander; a dozen silver plaques from Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie; an imposing silver water pitcher from President Taft, and a gold vanity mirror from Mrs. George J. Gould.

After the honeymoon is over the bride couple will take up their residence at San Francisco where young Roosevelt will enter business.

ROOSEVELT BEGINS DUTIES AS EDITOR

Visited His New York Office and Plunged Into Correspondence

CONTRIBUTOR TO THE OUTLOOK

Spent Only One Day of Rest at Sagamore Hill—Recognized on Street and Followed by a Throng—His Offices.

New York, June 20.—Theodore Roosevelt began today the life he has chosen for himself as a private citizen. After a single day of rest at Sagamore Hill, the former President took up his work today as a contributing editor of the Outlook. Not even the fact that his son was to be married this afternoon detained him from his desk.

The dispatch boat Dolphin on which Mr. Roosevelt left Oyster Bay late last night with Secretary of the Navy Meyer as his host, brought him into New York early this morning. He went direct to his office and immediately plunged into the mountain of correspondence that has been accumulating for him. Two hours later he appeared on the street and was immediately recognized by the crowds. Before he had walked half a block westward toward Fifth Avenue, he was followed by a throng that blocked the sidewalk.

The sun was beating down with an intensity that made a hot bath under the shower of water from the fire hose at a speed that made the crowd behind him run to keep up. As he passed the office of the publishing house that will bring forth his book on his hunting trip, he spied a tall portrait of himself, framed in red, white and blue. "That's dandy, isn't it?" was his comment. A hatter was close by. It took the colonel just two minutes to buy a wide brimmed straw hat with a black band. Then he footed it at the same amazing speed to his office again.

Editor Roosevelt's business headquarters hereafter will be on the seventh floor of the United Charities Building at Fourth Avenue and Twenty-second street where a suite of three rooms has been especially engaged for him.

On the entrance door appears the legend in big gilt letters: "Office of Theodore Roosevelt." The rooms themselves, although business-like in appearance are furnished with a magnificence unusual for an office building. The suite comprises a room for Mr. Roosevelt's secretary, a room in which visitors will wait and Mr. Roosevelt's own room, large and airy, fronting on Fourth Avenue. The walls are newly covered with bronze burlap. The furniture is of mahogany and the desk is a reproduction of George Washington's desk at Mount Vernon. A rich rug of tan, green and dull pink covers the polished parquet of the floor. Pictures of Washington, Lincoln and a copy of the Declaration of Independence, written largely in old English characters, hang on the bronze burlap. If it should be that visitors are too insistent there is an auxiliary exit by which Editor Roosevelt may escape through a hidden hall to the street.

ADDITIONAL FEDERAL JUDGE.

Lively Debate Over the Measure in the House.

Washington, June 20.—A lively debate was waged in the House tonight over the Senate bill to create an additional Federal Judge for the fourth or Virginia, North and South Carolina, West Virginia and Maryland and the bill was finally lost 91 to 96. Mr. Webb of North Carolina, in an impassioned appeal, backed by figures on a chart placed in front of the Speaker's rostrum, opposed the measure, declaring that much as he disliked to admit it the business in his circuit was decreasing. Mr. Carlin, of Virginia, and others urged the bill.

REBELS IN MEXICO OUTDONE SEVENTY-NINE NEW DOCTORS

Movement Against Government Discovers and Leaders Are Arrested—Towns Under Martial Law—Unrest.

Cananea, Mexico, June 20.—The premature discovery of smuggled arms and ammunition followed by the arrest of leaders of the discontented faction and the proclamation of martial law in Cananea and other border towns, probably has checked and discouraged a serious outbreak against the Mexican government scheduled to take place on June 26th, election day.

The revolutionary movement originated among young men of Northern Mexico, followers, it is said, of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, now in Europe, and Senor Madero, candidate for president, now under arrest in Monterey on the charge of causing crowds to form. The discontented faction demands political liberty, free speech and the "right to vote." They announce that they will go to the polls on election day, prepared to fight if denied their constitutional rights.

The discovery that the men were smuggling arms across the border from the United States was followed by police raids in many villages of Northern Sonora. Four men were arrested yesterday at Villavieja and a number of rifles and revolvers and 4,000 rounds of cartridges were captured. At Chivactria, near Cananea 45 rifles with ammunition were captured and at Buena Vista one house yielded 12 rifles with ammunition. Dealers at Bisbee, Douglas and Naco, Ariz., have sold all the rifles and ammunition in stock.

Cananea, the center of the movement, is guarded by two companies of the 25th infantry and a company of rural are under Col. Emilio Kosterlitzky. The gendarmes are under arms. Hundreds of arrests for causing a disturbance in public meetings have been made throughout Sonora and leaders of the revolutionary movement have been deported. Twelve leaders at Cananea have been taken to Hermosillo, where they will be held until the elections. The troops have orders to disperse any gathering of 50 or more persons.

Chief of Police Rafael Lopez, of Cananea, has resigned and disappeared. It is said that he left in response to warnings that his fate would be the same as that of the mayor and the chief of police of Culiacan who recently were killed.

Philadelphia, June 20.—Four of the men arrested on April 2nd in the raid on the Consolidated Stock Exchange in this city, charged with conspiracy to violate the Mesta anti-bucket shop law by conducting bucket shops in Washington gave up their fight against extradition today and entered bail to appear in Washington. They are Marshall F. Parrish, Albert W. Ford, Harry C. Stumph and Thomas H. Campbell.

DOCTORS GATHER AT THE SEASHORE

57th Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society.

FIRST SESSION THIS MORNING

Prominent Physicians From All Parts of State Arriving on Every Train—Tarrymore Hotel Place of Meeting.

Physicians from all parts of North Carolina are gathering at Tarrymore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, for the 57th annual convention of the North Carolina Medical Society, which convenes in the assembly hall of the popular hostelry this morning at 10 o'clock for a three days' session. Not only is the profession in North Carolina well represented at the beach but many prominent physicians from other States have arrived.

Many of the doctors are accompanied by their wives and other members of their families. At 10 o'clock last night it was estimated that probably 200 visitors, including the physicians and members of their families, had registered at the two hotels on the beach, more than a hundred having arrived on last night's train.

This session of the society gives every promise of being not only the most largely attended and most pleasant, from a social standpoint, in many years, but the most important, as there are a number of vital matters to be brought before the convention. While the programme is seemingly overcrowded with addresses, ample provision has been made by the local society for entertaining the visitors in pleasant style and extending to them the true Cape Fear hospitality. Many of the visiting physicians and their families are personally known to a large number of Wilmingtonians which will make their sojourn all the more pleasant.

The convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock this morning by Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, of Wilmington, chairman of the committee on arrangements, named by the society at the last meeting, after which prayer will be offered by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church. Dr. Thomas will then present Hon. John D. Bellamy, one of the leading members of the Wilmington bar and widely known as an orator of unusual ability, who will extend the visitors a Cape Fear welcome. The response will be by Dr. J. Howell Way, of Waynesville, one of the most prominent members of the society, who is well known to many Wilmington people. Dr. Thomas will then introduce Dr. Edward J. Wood, of this city, president of the society, who will deliver an address. Dr. Wood was elected president of the society by the councilors after the death of Dr. James Anthony Burroughs, of Asheville. It was indeed a wise selection. Dr. Wood is one of the most prominent physicians in the South and is widely known among the members of the profession. The society may well consider itself fortunate in securing Dr. Wood's consent to accept the office to which he was elected. Following his address a large number of papers of importance to the profession will be read.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon the first session of the House of Delegates will be held and the general session will be continued by the reading of a large number of papers. This evening has been set apart for memorial exercises and the programme will be as follows:

Obituary committee reports. Dr. C. A. Julian, chairman, Thomasville; "Our Deceased President—James Anthony Burroughs, M. D.—An Appreciation," Dr. J. Howell Way, Waynesville; remarks by members of the society; "In Memoriam—William Henry Harrison Cobb, M. D.—Dr. J. Howell Way, Waynesville; remarks by members of the society; other reports from obituary committee.

While a number of physicians came in some days ago the majority arrived yesterday and last night and were met at the union station by the reception committee, of which Dr. Chas. T. Harper is chairman. All the other members of the local society are on the reception committee and there were a number of them on hand to greet the visitors as they arrived. The following compose the entertainment committee: Dr. Fride Jones Thomas, chairman; Dr. J. C. Wessell, Dr. R. Harlee Bellamy, Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, Dr. C. B. Quillen, Dr. A. H. Harless, Dr. Thos. M. Green, Dr. R. B. Sluom and Dr. J. H. Bornemann. Dr. Chas. P. Bolles is chairman of the finance committee.

Dr. D. A. Stanton, of High Point, the popular and energetic secretary of the society, arrived yesterday and was busy during the afternoon and evening assisting members of the local committee. Dr. C. W. Stiles, scientific secretary of the society, arrived several days ago and is quartered at the Seashore Hotel. He will take a prominent part in the hookworm conference to be held Thursday morning. This conference will be one of the features of the convention and will attract the interest of leading physicians in many (Continued on Page Six.)

Goldsboro, N. C., June 20.—Heavy clouds threatened to put an end to today's beautiful contest before Goldsboro scored the only run in the ninth. Sharp was safe on Dubbs' fumble, took second on a passed ball, advanced another sack on Wolf's sacrifice, and scored on a muffed ball by Gilmore. The features of the game were Wolf's and Klutz's beautiful catches.

The game opened with a fly to centre for Klutz, a whiff for Dubbs but Tydemann, next up, singled over third and stole second, while Mills was also fanning. For Goldsboro after Gates had been retired atmospherically, Sharp hit past third for two bases, but Wolf and Daily each flied to Burke.

In the second after Doak flied to short and Cooper fouled to third Burke singled past second and stole second while Gilmore was fanning. Evans started Goldsboro with a single by third and was sacrificed by Crockett but Clancy was out short to first and after Evans advanced to third Stoehr was out pitcher to first.

After Gehring fanned in the third Klutz safetied over second, stole second and was sacrificed by Dubbs, but Tydemann flied to first. Goldsboro: Gunderson whiffed, Gates and Sharp were out from the infield.

Mills was hit and walked in the fourth, was sacrificed by Doak and stole third after Cooper flied to short, but Burke ended the frame, fly to second. For Goldsboro, after Wolf flied to short, Daily line to centre for an extra cushion, was sacrificed by Evans, but Crockett was out first unassisted.

In the fifth Gilmore ambled and Gehring ethered, the side being retired on beautiful double of Klutz's fly to centre. Clancy and Stoehr, for Goldsboro, were out from the infield, while Gunderson whiffed.

Dubbs, Tydemann and Mills were out from the infield in the sixth and after Giant Gates had walked and was sacrificed by Sharp, Wolf fouled to catcher and Daily was out pitcher to first.

Doak started the seventh with a single to left and was sacrificed by Cooper, but Burke tapped lightly to pitcher, forcing Doak to short while he himself was out with Gilmore up attempting to squeeze home. Evans few to centre, Crockett out first unassisted and Clancy flied to left.

In the eighth Gilmore was out pitcher to first, Gehring walked but Klutz and Dubbs hit and walked to second and centre. Goldsboro: Stoehr pitcher to first; Gunderson third to first; Gates flied to centre.

The ninth started with Tydemann out pitcher to first; Mills singled to centre, but Doak flied to left and Cooper was out third to first. Sharp, first up for Goldsboro, hit to short who threw wild to first and the runner went to second. Wolf sacrificed him and Daily then hit to Burke, who threw home and Gilmore muffed, Sharp crossing the rubber and ending the agony.

FIZZLES.

Well!
Did you ever?
Well, no I never!
"Someone had blundered!"
Gehring, old man; that was some pitching.

Goldsboro pulled off one of the doubles she's noted for.

It was a beautiful game up to the 9th—it was beautiful then, for Goldsboro.

Dubbs, let's discard those bootings and wanderlust leaves once for all. They cost too much.

Old Raleigh is shuffling along, and intends giving a few of the rest some fight for the top.

Had to make way for those climbing Red Birds in the percentage column, but we'll hike back up today.

After pitching such a masterful game it was hard luck for Gehring to have it lost that way for him.

Guess we'd have to lift this afternoon's game, so be at the matinee on time to see it well started and done.

Tidy Ty got his customary bingle, and also pilfered a sack. Burke and Klutz repeated his whole performance.

Goldsboro only solved Gehring for three hits. Two of them were for extra bases, but the one run of the game was scored on bobbles alone.

Gilmore, in the 9th, seems to have repeated his butter-fingered work of Saturday. "How about laying your reachers in Tanglefoot, Gil?"

When the Bugs at the matinee commenced to voice, their sentiments about those errors, 'twas leaving time, for it wasn't no place for a minister's son.

Mills' single didn't happen along until the heel of the afternoon, but he was there with it then, and to show he was some partfinder too, purloined 3rd.

Rube Benton, the great find, whose off side pitting for Macon, in the South Atlantic has been the talk and observation of many of the Northern managers and scouts, has been sold to the Cincinnati Reds at a figure given as more than $4,500, and not over $7,500", presumably the latter, and Macon was also given a pitcher, Lynch, in addition. Benton has left for Cincinnati.

LOCAL GOLFERS RETURN.

Tournament at Greenville, S. C., Great Success—Wilmington Men.

Members of the Cape Fear Golf Club, who attended the annual tournament of the Carolina Golf Association, at Greenville, S. C., last week, have returned home and report a most successful event. It will be of interest to Wilmingtonians, golfers especially, to know as previously stated, that Mr. John J. Blair, formerly second vice president of the association, was elected first vice president, which puts him that much nearer the office of president, and Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, secretary of the local club, was elected a member of the handicap committee, which rates all the players in the association for all tournaments and matches during the coming year. The second annual tournament will be held at Charleston, about May 11th, 1911. The local club has received an invitation to attend the golf tournament to be held at Nashville, Tenn., Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week under the auspices of the Nashville Golf and Country Club. This is an open tournament for amateurs, and all member of Cape Fear Golf Club are eligible to entry by virtue of the membership of the local club in the Southern Golf Association. The Nashville Club has made extensive preparations for the entertainment of the visitors, and it is hoped that a number from Wilmington will attend.

MAY PREVENT THE FIGHT.

Nevada Executive Understood to be Against Johnson to Reno.

San Francisco, June 20.—Reports that Gov. Dickerson, of Nevada, may declare himself against the holding of the Jeffries and Johnson fight in the Sage Brush State was received at the Johnson camp today. Johnson himself was the recipient, but he refused to divulge whence the information came.

It cast a noticeable gloom over the training quarters. Jack said he intended to leave the beach Thursday evening for Reno, but that he would wait until he received word from Tex Rickard or Manager Planagan that Gov. Dickerson was in favor of the bout. Billy Delany also expressed himself in favor of waiting until the news had been received from the promoter.

Highlanders Had Railroaders Going When Rain Came.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Fayetteville, N. C., June 20.—Today's game between Rocky Mount and Fayetteville was called in the fourth inning on account of rain with the score 3 to 1 in favor of the Highlanders, who were hitting Myers at opportune times. The Railroaders pursued dilatory tactics which it would seem should have been prevented. A Fayetteville man was on first with one down when the game was called.

NEVADA LANDS THE FIGHT.

Rickard Leaves for Reno to Make the Arrangements.

San Francisco, June 20.—With the departure of Tex Rickard for Reno the question of a stage for the heavy weight championship fight on July 4th was shifted definitely from California to Nevada.

After the interview that Mayor McCarthy held yesterday with Gov. Gillette failed to produce any positive results, the promoters admitted that the last chance of holding the fight in California had gone glimmering and the command went forth from Rickard to the training camps to pack up for a journey to Nevada.

Both camps obeyed orders, and are now awaiting final instructions from Rickard, who reached Reno tonight.

As he expects to hold an immediate conference with the respective fight promotion committees from Reno and Goldfield it is believed that the two camps will receive marching orders tomorrow.

That active preparations are making to shift the Langford and Ketchel fight to Nevada was manifest today when Jos Woodman instructed his Reno representative to procure training quarters at Reno for Langford. Sid Hester, who promoted the Nelson fight, and Volagast match, is in Reno, and it is believed that he is trying to get a permit for a fight between Langford and Ketchel.

LAURINBURG DEFEATED.

Score Seven to One at Hands of Rockingham Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Laurinburg, N. C., June 20.—Laurinburg met her first defeat today at the hands of Rockingham. The gangs went well until the fourth when with two men down Rockingham scored two men on an error. Rockingham has a strong team and it played excellent ball from beginning to end of the game. Cantwell, for Rockingham, and Roberts, for Laurinburg, played phenomenal ball. Roberts got four hits out of four times up. The score was 7 to 1.

DAY'S DOINGS AT RALEIGH AND FOR RIVERS AND HARBORS

Two Charlotte Corporations—Rains and The Crops—Turn-out Stolen and Farm Buildings Burned—Killing in Franklin County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—A charter was issued today for the Roberta Manufacturing Co., Concord, capital $100,000 for general cotton milling business, the incorporators including Jno. C. Rankin, S. M. Robinson, Lowell, R. E. Mason, J. H. McAden, Charlotte, and others.

Another Charlotte corporation is the Automatic Gas Machine Co., capital $50,000 by W. D. Beck, J. T. Vann and others. There is a charter for The Roberts, Corbitt, Woodward Co., Salem, capital $20,000 by W. W. Roberts, C. A. Corbitt and others for mercantile business.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham says that following the continued heavy rain and cool weather of the past weeks that so materially retarded the growth of cotton and other crops, there seems to be just now the most admirable weather conditions in nearly every section of the State to bring out the crops and make amends for the serious setback of the past three weeks. He expects crop conditions to improve rapidly.

The Corporation Commission today made an order in the long-drawn-out contest at Reidsville in which the F. R. Penn Tobacco Co., the Southern Railway Company, and a number of property owners are involved over the question of right of way for additional sidetracks needed by the Penn Co. The order is to the effect that the sidings required by the Penn Co. must be provided within sixty days.

Police and Sheriffs throughout this section of the State are being asked today to look out for the parties who stole a fine horse and buggy last night from B. Howard, at Garner, this county, and set fire to the barn, burning two fine mules, valuable farm implements and other property entailing a loss of more than $2,000. The barn is believed to have been burned to cover the theft of the horse and buggy. Hobgood is a prominent farmer who also operates a tobacco warehouse at Clayton.

Pink Pace, connected with the Whisnant saw mill plant just in the edge of Franklin county, was committed to jail here this morning for the killing of Will Barham the fatal fight having grown out of jealousy on the part of Barham of attention that Pace was paying to Alma Pulley, divorced wife of N. Denton, of Raleigh. The killing was at the home of the woman's sister, Mrs. Tinker Perry, near Wendell, to which place Pace came to give himself up to the officers. He was talking to the Pulley woman when Barham came up and struck him across the head. Knives were drawn and Barham cut Pace deeply down the left side of his face and again across the right side. Pace shot Barham three times and says Barham was drawing his revolver when he fired his first shot. He insists that he had no intention of provoking to bring on the fight.

Every railroad running into Raleigh had traffic tied up one time or another during the past week by serious freight wrecks. President and General Manager Jno. A. Mills declared today that it seemed to be just one of those seasons of wrecks that seem to come to the railroads from time to time in the most unaccountable manner. However, he and other railroad men express the view that the wrecks of the past week were due largely to the heavy and continued rains that had an unsettling effect of the road beds.

Episcopal clergy and laymen are arriving today from all parts of North Carolina and South Carolina for the Conference to be held this week in connection with St. Mary's School, the Parochial College for women of the two Carolinas. The indications are that there will be fully one hundred ministers and laymen here for the conference which begins tomorrow morning with Bishop Knisman of Maryland as the principal leader. The whole scope of Christian work as it pertains to the activities of the parish for rector and parishioners will be presented in different features of the program.

State Treasurer B. R. Lacy made a statement today that he found it necessary to scale the State bond allotment to the American Tobacco Co. down to $700,000 instead of issuing the company the million dollars of bonds, bid for, because all the bids opened June 10th were from North Carolina bidders except the American Tobacco Co. A clause of the bond act requires the State Treasurer to give preference to North Carolina bidders. When this was done there remained only $700,000 for the A. T. Co. Gov. Kitchin was busy today signing the bonds to be taken out by July 1st, aggregating $3,450,000.

ASSAULTED AND ROBBED.

Negro More Dead Than Alive Found in Coal Bin.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Newbern, N. C., June 20.—While engaged in looking over his machinery yesterday morning, Engineer Wm. Lovineer, who has charge of the Norfolk & Southern coal chute in this city, found a hat and pair of shoes lying on the ground near the coal pit. Mr. Lovineer could not understand why these articles were lying in such a place and immediately began an investigation which resulted in his finding of a coat and pair of pants. After finding these two last named articles, Mr. Lovineer was satisfied that there had been foul play committed and began to search for the victim. Looking into the coal pit he was horrified to find the nude body of a negro man, who showed signs of having been roughly handled, and at that time was in an unconscious condition. Assistance was secured and the man was taken to Stewart's Sanitarium, where he regained consciousness long enough to tell that his name was John Hargett, from Jones county, and that he had been set upon by three unknown negro men, who, after robbing him, struck him on the head with some heavy implement. After telling this he relapsed into a state of unconsciousness, and up to the present time has not been revived.

How North Carolina Has Fared Since Civil War—Entire Amount $9,943,022—Paltry Sum Prior to the War.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, June 19.—From government compilations and recent river and harbor bills I am enabled to give Observer readers the following facts with reference to government appropriations to North Carolina rivers and harbors, embracing all appropriations from the foundation of the government to the present time, including those in the present river and harbor act. The entire appropriations for the State amount to $9,943,022.92.

Prior to the civil war the appropriations to our waters amounted to $732,058.92, or an average of a little over $10,000 a year for the 72 years.

From the readmission of the State to representation in Congress in 1868 to Senator Ransom's election to the Senate in 1872, a period of four years, the State's waterways received $185,000 from the government or an average of $46,250. During this time the State was represented by Senators Pool and Abbott, Republicans, and almost solidly Republican delegations in the House.

During Senator Ransom's twenty-three years of service he and his Democratic colleagues in the Senate—Marrimon, Vance and Jarvis—and the almost solidly Democratic delegations in the House secured for the rivers and harbors of the State $4,176,200, an average of $181,574 a year. During nearly all of this time Senator Ransom was a member, and for a part of the time chairman, of the Senate committee on commerce. By virtue of his membership on, and chairmanship of this committee, he is largely entitled to the credit for these large appropriations for the State. The State never had a more untiring worker for her material advancement than the courtly Ransom, now for a very few years peacefully sleeping by his native hearthside.

For the six years from 1895 to 1901 in which the State was represented in the Senate by Senators Pritchard and Butler and almost solidly fusion delegations in the House, the appropriations for the State's waterways amounted to $573,700, an average of $95,615 a year, or but slightly over half the average of the period of Democratic control of the State's representation in Congress, although the total appropriations for the rivers and harbors of the country averaged more than twice as much in Pritchard's and Butler's time as they did in the time of Ransom and Vance.

In 1901, F. M. Simmons succeeded Marion Butler in the Senate, and for the next two years the State's representation in the Senate was divided politically—Pritchard, Republican, and Simmons, Democrat. During these two years the rivers and harbors appropriations for North Carolina amounted to $319,700, a yearly average of $319,700, a yearly average of $319,700.

Episcopal clergy and laymen are arriving today from all parts of North Carolina and South Carolina for the Conference to be held this week in connection with St. Mary's School, the Parochial College for women of the two Carolinas. The indications are that there will be fully one hundred ministers and laymen here for the conference which begins tomorrow morning with Bishop Knisman of Maryland as the principal leader. $159,850. This was before Senator Simmons became a member of the committee on commerce and before he "got his hand fairly in," although during this time he secured the authorization for the first survey of the famous "inland waterways."

For the seven years since 1903, when Senator Overman joined Senator Simmons in the Senate, there have been appropriated $2,956,364, an average of $565,195 a year—a little more than three times the yearly average of any other period of the State's history and nearly six times the average when the State was represented in the Senate by Republicans. These large appropriations have been secured by the untiring work of Senators Simmons and Overman and the State's delegations in the House, for much of the time solidly Democratic and nearly so all the time. For several years Senator Simmons has been a member of the Senate committee on commerce, and more than half of the $2,956,364 appropriated to our rivers and harbors during the last seven years has been added to the river and harbor bills in the Senate amendments offered and secured by him. He is a member of the national waterways commission and has given much study to water transportation, upon which he is coming to be regarded as an authority.

Recapitulation.
I recapitulate the appropriations as follows:
Prior to civil war (72 yrs.) $732,058.92
Ransom et al (23 yrs.) 4,176,200.00
Pritchard & Butler (6 yrs.) 573,700.00
Pritchard & Simmons (2 yrs.) 319,700.00
Sim. & Overman (7 yrs.) 3,956,364.00
Total $9,943,022.92

From the above the following deductions are easily made by Democrats: "First: It is of immense advantage to North Carolina to have one of its Senators on the Senate committee on commerce."

"Second: Although the Republican party has been in control of the government most of the time since the civil war, the Democrats having control of all branches of the law-making power only two years, North Carolina Democratic Senators and Representatives have been and are much more successful in obtaining appropriations for their constituents than Republicans. A comparison of the appropriations made for public buildings and for other purposes of the State, as well as the river and harbor appropriations, will bear out this statement."

TRAVELING MAN HELD UP.

Newbern Salesman While Reaching for Revolver Shot by Negro.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Newbern, N. C., June 20.—While en route from this city to Jones county this morning, Mr. Ralph Lupton, traveling salesman for the Carolina Grocery Company, was held up by a negro man, about 10 miles from this city, who ordered him to hand over all his money. Mr. Lupton refused to do this and attempted to secure his revolver which was in the foot of the buggy, but before he could do so the negro fired at him, the ball taking effect in his thigh. After shooting Mr. Lupton the negro took to the woods and has not been seen since.

Kitchin was busy today signing the bonds to be taken out by July 1st, aggregating $3,450,000.

State Treasurer B. R. Lacy made a statement today that he found it necessary to scale the State bond allotment to the American Tobacco Co. down to $700,000 instead of issuing the company the million dollars of bonds, bid for, because all the bids opened June 10th were from North Carolina bidders except the American Tobacco Co. A clause of the bond act requires the State Treasurer to give preference to North Carolina bidders. When this was done there remained only $700,000 for the A. T. Co. Gov. Kitchin was busy today signing the bonds to be taken out by July 1st, aggregating $3,450,000.

ASSAULTED AND ROBBED.

Negro More Dead Than Alive Found in Coal Bin.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Newbern, N. C., June 20.—While engaged in looking over his machinery yesterday morning, Engineer Wm. Lovineer, who has charge of the Norfolk & Southern coal chute in this city, found a hat and pair of shoes lying on the ground near the coal pit. Mr. Lovineer could not understand why these articles were lying in such a place and immediately began an investigation which resulted in his finding of a coat and pair of pants. After finding these two last named articles, Mr. Lovineer was satisfied that there had been foul play committed and began to search for the victim. Looking into the coal pit he was horrified to find the nude body of a negro man, who showed signs of having been roughly handled, and at that time was in an unconscious condition. Assistance was secured and the man was taken to Stewart's Sanitarium, where he regained consciousness long enough to tell that his name was John Hargett, from Jones county, and that he had been set upon by three unknown negro men, who, after robbing him, struck him on the head with some heavy implement. After telling this he relapsed into a state of unconsciousness, and up to the present time has not been revived.

CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, ETC.

Eczeema, Acne, Tetters, Salt Rheum, etc. are simply the ulceration of skin tissues, caused by humors and acids in the blood. The circulation has become infected with impurities which are being constantly deposited into the pores and glands of the cuticle, and a continual state of inflammation and irritation is thus kept up. Just as long as these humors and acids remain in the circulation the skin affection will continue. The trouble may be temporarily soothed and covered over with external applications, but such treatment does not make the blood any purer, and can therefore be of no permanent benefit. To cure any skin disease it is necessary to purify the blood—remove the cause. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, mild and pleasant in its action, it does not cure skin disease by forcing all the impurities to the surface, but stimulates the excretory members to carry it off through the natural avenues. If you have any skin affection you can not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It will assist nature in quickly restoring the smooth, even texture of the cuticle, and the cure will be permanent and lasting. Book on Skin Diseases free to all who write.

Some people in South Carolina love
Teddy R. because Ben T. hates him.

After Col. Roosevelt takes that two months' rest we would like to see him make a break at Chancellor Day for a joint debate.

One of the hardest things in the world to do is for a consumer to congratulate the producer who is getting all those high prices.

All of Col. Roosevelt's pictures look like he is trying to scare somebody—that is if he didn't accompany the caricature with the Roosevelt smile.

"What is business?" inquires a Wall Street paper. It is the activity of men engaged in hefty efforts to get a part or all of what each other makes.

The Chicago News remarks: "What a far it required to wake up Illinois."
It seems that the jar had to follow in the wake of Senator Lorimer's barrel.

Lo, the college graduate consider-eth how that he may go forth and set the world afire. Alas, he returneth home and indueth his father to finance his way to the baseball game.

Some people are provoked at Gov.
Harmon, of Ohio, because he won't come out and say things that might be used sooner or later to crack his political noggin.

Uncle Joe is going to spend part of the Summer at the seashore. Insurgents should not be mean enough to wish to hear any bad news of Uncle Joe if he should get far out enough for the sharks to get him.

A man is being sued by a Baltimore girl who wants $5,000 damages because he asked her for a kiss. Gee!
What in the world made the man so foolish as to take the risk without getting away with the goods?

Governor Gillette, of California, is jealous of the reputation of his State and does not want the eyes of the world centered upon it as a prize fight-
ery. California wants nothing to interfere with her "rep" as a prize farm.

The Charlotte papers are unanimous in condemning the verdict of a jury in acquitting a defendant charged with murder. The editors insist that it was a miscarriage of justice. The attorneys for the defense will consider that a compliment.

"Look before you leap," advises the Petersburg Index-Appeal. If this is meant for "the man on the fence," he will get into trouble. Matters not which way he leaps. Politicians everywhere are rowing over the officers while the consumer is the innocent bystander.

During this session of Congress 27, 800 bills have already passed. It might be observed that some of the most important bills affecting the direct interest of the people have been postponed till the very last days of Congress
when they are subject to riders, jokers and what not.

William Middleton, a New York inventor, died the other day in spite of the fact that his horoscope dated a year ago predicted that the year 1910 would be one of remarkable success for Mr. Middleton. Even that won't keep some people from turning loose their money for a horoscope canned and ready for them.

A New Jersey woman has not spoken to her husband in six years. His case must be hopeless. No doubt he is not worth saving. How much better material is a North Carolina husband. His wife gets after him every day and Sunday too, which shows that she is not willing to give him up as altogether a bad egg.

NEGRO PHILOSOPHY.

The Star has received from the publishers a book by a Southern author entitled "Uncle Wash, His Stories," by John Trotwood Moore, of Nashville, Tenn. As a writer of the dialect of the old fashion darkey,
"befo de war" specimen, Mr. Moore is superior to any writer who has ever attempted it in its ordinary sense.
The author is not only a master of the dialect, but he has incorporated into his work an immense amount of humor and quaint philosophy.

The book contains 320 pages and in it there is a collection of 30 old stories which Mr. Moore assures his readers originated with an old colored body servant of "de quality" folks in Tennessee. Mr. Moore has the gift, of course, to have originated the character, the dialect and the philosophy, but we have no doubt that he has been up against just such a character as "Uncle Wash." We know that there have been many "Uncle Washes" in the South and their philosophy, originality and humor has been like unto that which Mr. Moore gives us in his book. The subject matter of the stories appeals nearly as strongly as those of Uncle Remus and we are sure Mr. Moore is entitled to a place along with Joel Chandler Harris in furnishing to literature the black folk lore of slavery times, together with a philosophy that is by no means to be despised.

"Uncle Wash, His Stories" can be had by addressing the publishers, The John C. Winston Company, Philadelphia.

THE PREDATORY ROOSEVELT.

Just as soon as Col. Roosevelt returned from Elba, he boldly laid claim to "the common people." While President, he stole Col. Bryan's platform, and now, possessed of astounding effrontery and audacity, he has the presumption to monkey with the Nebraska's long suit as tribune of the people.

The Rough Rider should be given to understand that there can be but one idol of the people. It is not within the admissibilities nor the possibilities to have but one Peerless One.
That lofty pinnacle has been pre-empted
and that claim has been staked off too long to be messed with by such a poacher as the intrepid lion hunter. Col. Roosevelt is getting to be altogether too predatory, so it is absolutely necessary to throw up earthworks, construct barricades and lay mines to prevent his ruthless incursions upon the Bryan domain.

Col. Theodore Nimrod Roosevelt is only showing this Guggenheim appropiateness because he knows that Col.
Bryan is right and would never tree anything unless it is worth going after. If Col. Bryan is not content to be isolated on the political barrens, left high and dry, paramountless, issueless and peopleless, he should at once sue out a writ of injunction against one Teddy, the Terrible.

Wherefore, of its own preponderance, the anti-injunction issue necessarily takes a header into the abysmal depths of "innocuous desuetude."

SIGN OF GOOD TIMES.

The New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle, of June 18th, contains an interesting summary of the reports of earnings and expenses of over 800 railroad companies in the United States. The companies involved in the reports control 235,000 miles of roads. The gratifying showing is made that there is not the slightest evidence of any shrinkage either in railroad traffic or in railroad gross revenues. On the contrary, the Chronicle says "the record is still one of continued growth and expansion."

The Chronicle, however, in its statistics shows that there is a sharp distinction between gross earnings and net earnings, the showing as to the latter depending upon the increased cost of operations, which has kept pace with the increased cost of everything else. Nevertheless, the business done by the railroads shows that the country is getting back to a solid productive basis, and, barring the political situation which, it is pretended, is causing some uneasiness in financial circles, it can be confidently asserted that the financial condition of the country must logically improve.

From now forth the news from the growing crops will constitute the greatest factor in our prospects for prosperity this Fall. So far as the general crop condition is concerned, it is too early yet to make definite statements, but the condition is at least full of promise.

FARMERS' UNION GROWING.

Next thing we know the Tatf administration will have its eyes on the "farmers' trust." The Farmers' Union of America has grown to be one of the greatest organizations in this country but it is not organized in "restraint of trade." It was called into existence for the benefit of agriculture and to promote and protect the Agricultural interest upon which all other interests depend. Incidentally the Union aims to keep other people from restraining the trade of the farmers.

The Farmers' Union is a powerful organization and it has not only spread throughout the United States, but it is invading Canada. The Canadian wheat growers are enthusiastic over it, because they see that "in union there is strength." The organization stands by the producers and they will come very nearly getting their own as long as they keep their heads together and steer clear of politics.

The Southern cotton growers know what the Farmers' Union is, and through their organization they have made their influence felt throughout the cotton-consuming world. We have no doubt that better prices for cotton are largely due to the uniting of the farmers. They are not crushing anybody, but they are going to see to it that nobody shall crush them. We are not running for office, but we stand for the farmer.

SOUTHERN COMMERCE.

The annual review of foreign commerce of the United States issued a few days ago by the Department of Commerce and Labor makes an astonishing showing for Southern ports, and so far as imports are concerned the Atlantic ports which make the large increase, are Wilmington, Norfolk, Charleston and Savannah. The report embraces comparative figures for ten years up to 1909, both as to exports and imports.

The exports from the Atlantic ports increased 12 per cent during the ten years while those of the Gulf ports increased 110 per cent. There is a big difference between the percentage of increase on the Gulf and on the Atlantic, but it is due to the fact that the exports of many Northern and Eastern ports have declined, while the percentage of increase of exports from the Southern ports compare favorably with the big increase from the Gulf ports. Of the 17 Atlantic ports showing either large or small increases during the last ten years, seven are Southern ports.

The greatest increase made by any one of the seven was $26,879,584.00 at Savannah, Georgia, showing a growth of more than 111 per cent over 1899.
The greatest proportionate increase was made by St. Johns, (the district of Jacksonville) which showed an increase of over 700 per cent. The other noteworthy increases were Wilmington, N. C., 107 per cent; Fernandina, Fla., 102 per cent; and Brunswick, Ga., 42 per cent.

The import figures for the ten years prove a closer touch of Southern ports with the commerce of the world; for while Atlantic ports increased in the 10 years, 76 per cent, Gulf ports increased 240 per cent. As evidence that the increase of 75 per cent made by Atlantic ports was largely dependent upon the increases made by South Atlantic ports, the following cities and their increases are mentioned: Baltimore, Md., $9,151,155 to $24,022,324;
Charleston, S. C., $990,879 to $3,630, 796; Savannah, Ga., $376,154 to $2-
152,441; Norfolk, Va., $208,005 to $1-450,598; Wilmington, N. C., $142,923 to $1,288,991; Richmond, Va., $53,360
to $696,984; Georgetown, D. C., $192-414 to $568,797; St. Johns, Fla., $37-757 to $149,397; Petersburg, Va., $327 to $264,230; Pamlico, N. C., $2,337 to $91,922; Fernandina, Fla., $25,740 to $90,087. All of them showing much more than 76 per cent gain.

The South's exports consist principally of raw cotton and the statistics for 1909 show that of all the exports of the United States more than one-fourth of the values was on account of raw cotton produced in the South and exported from Southern ports.

The Baltimore Sun notes that large increase in imports entering such ports as Wilmington and other ports indicates that the South is not only able to buy a greater quantity of foreign products but is dealing direct in foreign trade instead of through
New York.

The man who has plenty thinks prosperity is always here.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The government is puzzled to know what to do with liquor in dry States.
The problem is surprisingly easy. Give it to the people who do know what to do with it.—Atlanta Journal.

It was Editor Dockery who stated to a smoking room audience on his return from Wrightsville, and he did it

Dispensary counties can hardly be accused of debauching adjacent "dry" territory, in the opinion of the Florence Times, which calls attention to the fact that mail orders for liquor, to be shipped from Jacksonville and other points where wholesale liquor selling by private individuals is still permitted, have recently reduced to the extent of $20,000 the dispensary revenues of the six counties remaining
"wet."—Columbia Record.

That was a pretty tribute which the North Carolina Press Association paid Joseph P. Caldwell, retired editor of the Charlotte Observer, at its annual meeting last week. At the banquet table a chair was left vacant and in it was placed flowers. A close friend of Mr. Caldwell responded to a toast to the absent member. Mr. Caldwell

North Carolina journalism and is loved

The fact that the securities of standard railroads are a favorite investment for women, guardians and trusttees should operate as a warning to the agitators who make a specialty of conducting crusades against railroads and who are seeking, in all possible ways, to hamper transportation corporations. In Congress and out many people, mainly politicians, are striving for the fetters for railroads and to impose on them the maximum number of restrictions. If their raid should be largely successful a great many thousands of people would suffer.— Hartford Times.

At the recent gathering of physicians at St. Louis, one of the doctors who addressed the meeting suggested that people could live to be over a hundred if they wouldn't smoke,
wouldn't drink, wouldn't retire at 10 P.
M., arise at 6 A. M., never worry about making money, live a simple life, do everything in moderation, never get excited, and never eat unless they felt like it and then not much.
No doubt, but who would want to live
a hundred years under such conditions, restraints and limitations? Merely to exist is not to live.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

According to a report just issued by the Secretary of State of South Carolina over $11,000,000 has been expended in new enterprises in South Carolina since January 1st. The majority of the new concerns are for the manufacture of lumber and cotton, the principal industries of the Carolinas.
One remarkable fact connected with this report is that while for the past two years or more there has been a serious depression in the cotton goods market, yet the money in mill properties, even though there exists a temporary derangement of the goods market. By way of passing it may be noted that North Carolina's record is not behind this. Scarcely a day passes that some new concern is not chartered in this State. To her lasting credit it may be said that for several years past North Carolina has led the list of States in amount of money invested in new mill property and number of concerns set going.—Charlotte News.

We see no reason of excuse for hesitation on the part of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce in reporting the bill "relating to bills of lad-ing," which has passed the House, on account of the incidental requirement discovered in the railroad bill. That merely includes among regulations and conditions that must be met by the carriers, those affecting "the issuance and form and substance of tickets, receipts and bills of lading." This might possibly be held to empower the Interstate Commerce Commission to prescribe a form of bill of lading for railroads, if after hearing, etc. it found those in use not to be a matter of just and reasonable regulation. But why leave the matter to that doubtful process when it can be clearly settled by positive law? The pending bill is the result of long agitation of the subject, has been carefully prepared, and has the support of shipping and banking interests; while little objection has been raised on the part of the railroads. It passed the House with slight opposition, but when it gets into committee in the Senate near the close of the session some railroad interests may interpose and express the fear that it may hold them responsible for too much, and they get it referred to a sub-committee for a special examination, and a "full hearing" is to be given today. This looks like a deliberate scheme of having this bill held up and thereby delaying the passage of the water-tested in its passage ought to make themselves heard. This is a simple piece of legislation which ought to have been enacted long ago, and any further putting off at the intersection of railroads which wish to make their freight for loss as small as possible,
should not be tolerated.—New York Journal.

AIMED AT ALCOHOLISM.

Dr. Russell Bellamy Would Have Increased Examinations and Confined.

My Dear Mr. Editor:—Will you favor a native Wilmingtonian by publishing this request? On account of the apparent inability to enforce the most liberal prohibition law I can imagine, made possible by a majority of 45,000 men, I wish to suggest that you immediately have the Legislature pass a bill which will give you an extract. The popular but pathetic picture of numerous alcoholics on the streets, called drunks, but I say "poisoned" people, prompts me to beg you, 45,000 men, to have these people put in the penitentiary, many publicly ragged, are poisoned by substances adulterated with the cheapest and often most poisonous compounds, and few dumb animals would live if given proportionate drinks that the unfortunates now take.
Every alcoholic passed by competent examiners of inebriety, just as we have lunacy boards, should be committed to the State plantations for 18 months. Then should be allowed a probation of six weeks and then have their liberty. A reincarceration should mean four years' incarceration.
By the way, the State should be the recipient of honest work—the victim's family spared much misery and the growing youths forego temptation. During my two years' residence in the country's oldest and largest hospital when I made a special study of cocaine and other drugs and tremens, nearly 20 years ago, I mapped out the above ideas so necessary for the good of our State and Nation.
Very respectfully,
RUSSELL BELLAMY.

Kingston, N. C., June 19.—Last night

him almost instantly. The accident happened near the Neuse river bridge, at which Coker had lived nearly all his life. Coker was a white man about 38 years old and leaves a widow and a number of children. It is supposed that Coker had been track toward his home, and that he thought he was sufficiently far enough out from the track for the engine to

was brought to Kingston by the train which struck him and left with an moned and an inquest was held, but an adjournment was taken until

ARRESTED AT LUMBERTON.

White Man Wanted at Conway—Superior Court Convened—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Lumberton, N. C., June 20.—W. J.
Parker, a white man wanted at Conway, S. C., charged with blockading and kidnapping a colored woman, was arrested at Lumberton Bridge in this county and placed in jail here Saturday night.
Requisition papers had been secured before he was arrested, and he will be carried to South Carolina this week. When Deputy Spivey went for him he declined to be arrested, but when he found himself gazing down the barrel of the officer's gun he came without the second invitation.

Mrs. J. C. Barnes, of Back Swamp, died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock.
Mrs. Barnes was about 25 years old and a most excellent Christian woman.
She is survived by her husband and two small children, the youngest being only five weeks old. The funeral was conducted this morning at 10 o'clock, her pastor, Rev. Mr. Bridges, officiating.

Judge W. R. Allen arrived on the early morning train from Wilmington to preside at Superior court, which convened this morning. Only motions were heard and court adjourned for the term.

Quite a number of Lumberton people left this morning for Jackson Springs where they will spend some time.

LIFE TOO LONELY FOR HIM.

Body of William Skinner Found in Cemetery at Concord.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)
Concord, June 19.—Cold in death,
his breast pierced by a pistol bullet,
the body of Mr. William Skinner was found in Oakwood cemetery yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The weapon of destruction was lying near the body, bearing many witness to the tragic end of a good man. The dead had been committed some two hours before the body was discovered.
Mr. Skinner was going toward the cemetery about 4 o'clock, but was not seen afterwards until three ladies strutting through the cemetery came upon his lifeless body. They immediately notified the police and Coroner Caldwell was summoned, but after viewing the body decided that an inquest was unnecessary and the remains were turned over to an undertaker.

Mr. Skinner's mind had evidently become unbalanced. Since the death of his wife he had not been in his usual spirits and at times was very despondent and gave evidences of insanity. He moved to Charlotte about six months ago and only returned to Concord last Thursday.

SUNDAY AT WRIGHTSVILLE 21ST ANNUAL MEETING HERE

Many Week-End Guests at Popular Beach Hotel—Nearly All the Rooms Taken at Seashore.

The hotels at Wrightsville Beach were crowded with the usual week-end visitors on Sunday and the seashore presented for the first time this season an animated scene of bathers and strollers. Practically every room in the new Seashore Hotel was taken, there being less than a half dozen unoccupied rooms at 8 o'clock Sunday night, and the new Tarrymore also had a large number of guests. Physicians for the annual meeting of the Medical Society, began arriving in great numbers yesterday and the Tarrymore, the headquarters, is filling up rapidly.

Should fair weather prevail this week the steel pier at the Seashore will be completed and formally opened Thursday or Friday of this week. The pier would have been completed some days ago had it not been for the continuous rain.

There was comparatively no breeze at the beach Sunday evening and many declared Sunday night to have been the hottest ever known at the far-famed resort. However, this lasted only a few hours, as there was considerable breeze yesterday and it increased as the day advanced.

Capt. Walter Marine had a delightful sailing party outside in his launch Atlanta Sunday morning. The party was given in honor of Dr. H. B. Rowe, of Charlotte, N. C., those in the party being Drs. S. A. Harding, C. T. Grier, W. H. Howell, C. J. Turvey, C. H. Pugh, P. R. Rankin and H. B. Rowe, all of Charlotte. The doctors have just completed examinations before the State Board, and are sojourning for a short while at the beach, indulging in the pleasures of the seashore, mostly sailing and fishing.

Visitors at the beach Sunday were treated by two excellent concerts by the talented Sunday orchestra. The first was rendered in the morning in the lobby of the Seashore Hotel, when the combined orchestra of the popular hotel and Lumina delighted a large audience. In the evening the orchestra gave another sacred concert at Lumina and greatly pleased the visitors with many well rendered selections.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark and two sons, who for some time have been at the Seashore Hotel, intend to leave this morning for their home in Tarboro, after having had a very pleasant stay at the beach.

Among those registered at the Tarrymore and Seashore over Sunday were Messrs. W. H. Kent, T. S. Cunningham, J. I. Marshall and W. J. Godbold, of South Carolina; Mr. W. Irving Shaw, Ivanhoe; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dempsey, Sumter, S. C.; Mr. J. Bayard Clark, Elizabethburg; Mr. E. I. Brown, Chadbourn; Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Council, Wainwright; Mr. E. B. Lowry, Monroe; L. B. Clagett, Baltimore; J. T. Lee Jones, Baltimore; Wm. F. Mary, Baltimore; F. W. Bally, Newark, N. J.; I. H. Johnson, Atlanta, Ga.; S. H. H. Baltimore; T. S. Burns, Baltimore; C. C. Walter, Richmond, Va.; Simon Solomonsky, New York; Chas. Victor, New York; C. C. Baker, New York; G. F. Bryce, Florence, S. C.; W. P. Daniels, Norfolk, Va.; D. E. Goodwin, Baltimore; Louis Rothchild, Philadelphia; H. L. Lyon, Whitefish; Logan T. Williamson, Atlanta; W. J. Walsh, New York; Leo Gottheimer, Atlanta; R. L. Freeman, Fayetteville; Chas. Siebert, New York; R. M. McCullas, McCall, S. C.; G. W. Forrester, Atlanta; L. Lichtman, New York; W. P. Wooten and son, and M. Mark, Baltimore; Dr. L. Baggett, Tabor; Miss Cara Lea, South Hill, Va.; Miss Mary E. Miller, Charlotte; Tom S. Pippin, Birmingham, Ala.; M. H. Neal, Hartford, Conn.; H. R. Marshall, Charleston, S. C.; J. M. Gilbert, New York; F. W. Mills, Jr., Philadelphia; H. A. Goodpasture and Thomas Sheridan, Baltimore; Dr. L. O. Copridge, Kenansville; Dr. D. A. Deas, Bayboro; Dr. Ralph Dees, Bayboro.

On its trips Sunday the steamer Wilmington had on board a large crowd for Carolina Beach, especially in the afternoon, when the boat was crowded. It was an ideal day for a trip on the river and those who went down spent the afternoon most comfortably and pleasantly, returning to the city late in the afternoon.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Case Against George Green, Colored, Continued Until Today.

The most important case on the Recorder's court docket yesterday morning, that against George Green, colored, charged with larceny by trick, was continued until today. The case was Geo. L. Pesch, Esq., who stated that Green desired time to arrange to employ counsel to defend him. Green was arrested Saturday night and the specific charge is that he obtained two sacks of cracked corn and one sack of corn from the store of John S. McEachern Sons. It is understood that three additional warrants will be issued and served on him this morning. All four cases will be investigated at the same time. Marsden Bellamy, Esq., county attorney, will appear for the prosecution.

Lewis Larkin, colored, was found guilty of a charge of abandonment, and was sentenced to six months on the county roads. The Recorder stated that he would not send the defendants to the roads if he could arrange to give $100 bond to assure payment to his wife of $3 a week. Larkin thought he could give the bond. S. B. Bradshaw, a white man, an old offender, was charged with drunkenness and was sent to the roads for 60 days—30 days in the case tried yesterday and 30 days in an old case in which judgment had been suspended. Arthur Davis, colored, charged with simple assault on his sister, Maggie Davis, was required to pay a fine of $5 and cost. Stella Dobson, a white woman, a denizen of the underworld, was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Cases against E. D. Nixon, colored, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, were continued until today.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT.

Reported That Body of Drowned Man Was Found in Water Reservoir.

The wonder is how do they start and how fast they travel once they are started. There was a rumor on the streets yesterday that the body of a drowned man had been found in the water filter at Hill Park at first it was given out with bated breath, later the news was told in half-confidential manner and last night it was "literally all over the street." Of course, it meant hard work for the reporters, but an investigation revealed the fact that there was absolutely no truth in the report. It was stated at the waterworks office that in order for the body of a drowned man to get in the filter, it would first be necessary for him to be taken in through the pipe, then carried through the pump, then through a strainer and lastly through a strata of about four feet of sand. The report was laughed out of court. As to the reservoir, it was stated that in order to be drowned in that, the man before drowning would first have to crawl up a steel framework of 90 feet and then jump overboard, all of which is very remote. It is not known how the report originated, but absolutely no trace of the origin could be found last night.

Incidentally, the analysis of the water received from the State Chemist last Friday is pronounced the best in five months. It is stated from the waterworks office absolutely that there is no contamination and that the water is perfectly good for all drinking purposes.

An Aeroplane Sighted.

A gentleman of unquestioned integrity called up the Star office yesterday evening with the information that between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon he witnessed the passing over the city from the west toward the east of an aeroplane under full speed ahead. He stated that the driver could be plainly seen at the helm. No further information could be learned yesterday evening as to the flight.

Smaller Boys Admitted Only During the Day—Statement Issued.

The following statement is issued from the office of the Y. M. C. A.: "Occasionally it happens that some boy desiring to leave home after supper, asks permission of parents to visit the Y. M. C. A. and wanders about the city instead. Some criticism of the Y. M. C. A. has been made by parents for permitting the boys to visit the building after supper. This criticism is made by parents who do not know that the only hours that boys are admitted are between 9 A. M. and 6 P. M."

The secretaries desire to be of the greatest service to the boys and will be glad to make the most hearty co-operation of the parents in their work."

BOLD BURGLAR THIS.

Smashed in Panel of Door at Residence of Mr. S. A. Stockard.

A rather bold and all but successful attempt was made Saturday night to burglarize the residence of Mr. S. A. Stockard, No. 321 South Fourth street. (The family of Mr. Stockard is away at present and no one was sleeping in the house except Mr. George Ashe, who was rudely awakened at a late hour by hearing the crash of a door panel which had been smashed in with the evident purpose of uncatching the latch from the inside. Mr. Ashe called to know what was at the door and immediately jumped out of bed when the burglar with an oath at the frustration of his plans, dashed out of the house, leaving a pair of pliers or other implement used in carrying on his work. These bear no mark that would lead to the identity of the would-be thief and no clue has since been developed.

Extensive Improvements Will be Made to Government Wharf Soon.

The government wharf on Water, between Princess and Market streets, the dock of the revenue cutter Seminole, will be rebuilt and extensively improved according to plans and specifications received at the Custom House yesterday. The plans were submitted by Capt. R. O. Crisp, of the Seminole through the Department of Collector Keith and bids will be asked immediately for the work which will doubtless be completed by the time the Seminole returns for her winter cruising.

Most of the present wharf will be torn away and new material supplied, where needed.

OLERICH GOES TO FLORIDA.

Pilot Boat Bought Here Recently by Pensacola Fish Company.

The small schooner Herman Olerich, which was used for about a year on the Cape Fear bar as a pilot boat and recently purchased by the Warren Fish Company, of Pensacola, Fla., will sail today for Florida, where she will be placed in service.

Capt. Warren, of Pensacola, recently came here and made the deal, purchasing the boat from Capt. Fred B. Rice and other Wilmington parties interested. Since Capt. Warren left the vessel has been in dry dock, being put in seaworthy condition. A crew of two men, not including Capt. Warren, and the steward, arrived here last night from Norfolk, Va.

Death of Infant Daughter.

Many friends will tenderly sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. L. King in the death of their 13-months-old daughter, Mary L. King, which occurred at the family residence, No. 809 South Fourth street, last evening. The child had been ill for several days but her condition was not considered serious. The funeral services were held from the family residence at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist church. The body was taken on the afternoon train to Cronly, where the interment took place.

SHOPLIFTING IS CHARGED.

Three Negro Girls Arrested Yesterday at Noon for Larceny.

Charged with stealing a piece of silk, valued at $5, from the department store of J. H. Rehder & Co., on North Fourth street, Mary Robinson, Viola Johnson and Geneva Bell, each apparently about 13 years old, were arrested at noon yesterday by Officer T. M. Hall. They were taken to police headquarters, where, in default of bond, they were given a berth to await hearing before the Recorder this morning. There was a large crowd of shoppers in the store yesterday morning, but one of the salesladies saw the three negro girls when they entered and kept a watch on them. She saw one of the girls take a piece of silk from the counter and conceal it beneath her coat. When approached by the saleslady the girls ran, but were soon overtaken and captured. The police were then notified and warrants issued for the arrest of the girls.

THREE NEW CASES SMALLPOX.

One Quarantined at Home and Two Sent to Pest House.

Three new cases of smallpox developed Sunday and yesterday—two white persons and one colored, making a total of some 10 or 12 patients or suspects. Miss Laura Jacobs, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jacobs, No. 406 Chestnut street, was pronounced a victim of the disease after an examination Sunday morning by the city physician, Dr. Joseph Akerman, and the house was immediately quarantined. The other white person is Mr. Richard Allen, No. 202 Davis street, and he has been or will be sent to the pest house. The victim of the third case, Beck Allen, colored, was sent to the pest house. While there are several cases of smallpox in the city no epidemic is expected, especially in view of the warm weather.

GENERAL CARR NOT COMING.

Called to Washington Yesterday on Important Business.

From a private letter received in this city yesterday morning it is learned that Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, one of the State's best known and most prominent citizens, who was scheduled to deliver the response to the address of welcome at the first session of the bankers' convention tomorrow night, had been called to Washington on important business and would not be able to attend the convention. In the absence of General Carr the response will be delivered by Col. W. H. Burgwyn.

Too Much Rain for Show Business.

Mr. Marx Nathan, the popular manager of Nathan Bros.' excellent shows, has returned to the city, the shows having disbanded for the season on account of the rainy season encountered for the past four weeks. Mr. Nathan said that for the past four weeks it rained in every town in which his shows exhibited, but despite this handicap the crowds were large. The show was good when it started out from Wilmington some months ago, but several new and novel features were added. The shows will probably go on the road again in the Fall.

Daughters of Liberty Excursion.

The local council of the Daughters of Liberty, the woman's branch of the Junior Order, United American Mechanics, will operate an excursion to Carolina Beach tomorrow and it is expected that the steamer Wilmington will carry a large crowd on each of the three trips. The first boat leaves the pier at 9:30 A. M., the second at 2:30 P. M. and the third at 7:30 P. M. The boat will return to the city late at night. The fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents.

POSTAL BANK BILL.

Senate Far From Agreeing on Important Measure.

Washington, June 20.—Instead of reaching vote on the acceptance of the House Postal Savings Bank bill as had been confidently expected, the Senate apparently was farther from that consummation when it adjourned today than when it convened.

Late in the day, and following speeches in opposition to the House measure, Senator Bacon offered an amendment striking out the provision regulating the investment of deposits in government bonds and the motion was pending when the Senate adjourned.

The principal speech in opposition to the House bill was made by Senator Cummins, who contended that the measure was a radical reversal of the Senate bill.

He urged Mr. Carter to reconsider his motion to concur and pursue the usual course of asking for a conference. To do otherwise would be to confess failure, he said, and he would not have the Senate surrender without a struggle.

He voiced especial objection to the provisions of the House bill governing the control of the Savings Bank system by trustees and the withdrawal of deposits. He contended that in both respects the House bill was diametrically opposite from the Senate bill.

To both changes he was so radically opposed that he would rather have no postal savings bill than to take the House bill, he declared.

He contended that the influence of the local banks would be used against postal depositories with the result that there would be much complaint and much discrimination.

BISHOP HOSS TALKS.

Criticizes Action of Board of Trust of Vanderbilt. Nashville, Tenn., June 20.—The church is going to contend for it and not surrender a "hair's breadth," said Bishop Hoss tonight, referring to the action of the Board of Trust of Vanderbilt University in refusing to seat the three members elected by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to fill the vacancies in that body. The bishop threw the gauntlet to the Board of Trust, declaring that "the church believes that the decision of the commission appointed by the church to consider the university was in every way sound and just and it will contend for it until the end."

The bishop said there will be no compromise. The naked question is whether the church, which originated the university and which by the solemn affirmation of the trustees themselves put on their own record years ago, owns the university, has any right to control it. If the church does not control the university it intends to know the fact that the sooner the matter can be determined the better it will be for all concerned.

The bishop stated that while no definite action could be taken until a meeting of the College of Bishops is held there is no doubt at all in his mind that there could be a suit.

PRIZE FIGHTS IN NAVY.

Jackies Fought Two Battles at Norfolk Navy Yard. Norfolk, Va., June 20.—Despite the recent order of Capt. Park, of the Norfolk navy yard, to the effect that prize fighting would not be permitted at this station, four fights were pulled off on board the battleship Minnesota Saturday night.

The principal bout was between Phillips, of the wireless station, and Szarewanski, of the Virginia. The bout went six rounds and the decision was given the Russian. Phillips holds the welterweight championship of the navy.

Thomas Hill, of the receiving ship "Franklin," and Eagan, of the Minnesota, fought six rounds, Eagan getting the decision. Sangler, of the Minnesota, and Boyett, of the Louisiana, fought a draw as did Small and Richardson, of the Minnesota. The fact that the fights were held did not leak out until late tonight.

MUST SERVE LIFE TERM.

Dr. McKowen Goes to Prison for Murder of Lunatic. New Orleans, June 20.—Dr. E. C. McKowen, of Jackson, La., who was sentenced to life in the penitentiary for the murder of E. K. Judson, an inmate of the State asylum at Jackson. Dr. McKowen was recently convicted on this charge at Baton Rouge. He took an appeal, but today the State Supreme Court handed down an opinion in the case, the verdict of the jury in the lower court.

Dr. McKowen was indicted about a year ago for sending obscene letters through the mail. It was reported that he had used Judson, a harmless lunatic, in transcribing the letters. This report was followed by the murder of Judson.

POLITICS IN OHIO.

State Convention of Democrats Opens at Dayton Today.

Dayton, O., June 20.—With prospects for a greater degree of peace in connection with nominations than has reigned for many years, but with indications of a contest of national importance over party policies, the Ohio State Democratic Convention will open here tomorrow.

The big fight of the convention will come when the State Central Committee meets tomorrow to consider among other matters, the proposition to amend the constitution to require the endorsement of a candidate for the United States Senate, William J. Bryan has openly advocated this plan and he is seconded by his supporters in Ohio, including former Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, and the Cuyahoga county (Cleveland) delegation.

Governor Judson Harmon is opposed to the endorsement proposition and indications are that the plan will be defeated, but the fight over the question will be a bitter one.

Governor Harmon has no opposition for re-nomination to a second term, but a contest is expected over the naming of a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

FEARFUL KENTUCKY TRAGEDY

Man and Woman Killed—Murderer a Desperate Man.

Jackson, Ky., June 20.—A man and woman dead and another woman perhaps fatally wounded, are the sum total of a quarrel, which had its tragic ending Sunday at Jetts Creek, Breathitt county. News of the tragedy became public today. The alleged slayer is Asbury Spicer, who figured prominently in the Hargis and Cockrill feud and in connection with the murder of Dr. Cox.

The victims of yesterday's shooting are Spicer's nephew, Asbury Fugate, and Mrs. Demit Johnson, who lived in Fugate's household, and Fugate's mother, the latter a sister of Spicer. The two former were killed. Fugate was a tenant on his uncle's farm, and the affray is alleged to have been the result of a business disagreement. Mrs. Fugate is alleged to have been shot by her brother while defending her son from attack. Sheriff Hudson went to Jetts Creek today in response to a message saying that Spicer desired to surrender and it is supposed that the prisoner will be brought to Jackson tomorrow.

RYAN BROKEN IN HEALTH.

Well Known Financier Starts for Europe Today.

New York, June 20.—Broken in health is said to be the reason of a trip to Europe on which Thomas F. Ryan, financier and former traction magnate will start tomorrow.

It is known that Mr. Ryan has not been in the best of health for several months, but the financial district only heard today the rumors that his condition might become serious. More than two years ago Mr. Ryan began to relinquish his executive responsibilities and of late his business activities have been greatly curtailed. His intention to retire entirely from business has often been reported and the recent sale of his interests in the Equitable Life Assurance Society was regarded as almost a final step in a pre-arranged plan.

WILL MAKE REPLY.

Ex-Sheriff McLeod Will Answer Messrs. Patterson and Lawrence.

Lumberton, N. C., June 20.—A representative of The Robesonian was sent to Mr. McLeod this morning to ask if he had anything to say in reply to the interview from Messrs. Patterson and Lawrence in Sunday's Star. Mr. McLeod said that he would be glad for the people of the county and the district to withhold their decision until he has the opportunity of replying, which he hopes to do through The Robesonian in Thursday's issue.

Como, Italy, June 20.—Constantine Ispatoff, the Russian, who has been retained by the police in connection with the mysterious murder of Mrs. Porter Charlton, whose body was found packed in a trunk fished out of Lake Como, was released today. Ispatoff was a chance acquaintance of Mrs. Charlton and her husband and he has been closely questioned since he was taken into custody.

COTTON MARKET RULED HIGHER

Fresh Buying Inspired by the Firmness of Old Cotton Bull Party. Close Steady Advance of 13 to 20 Points.

New York, June 20.—The cotton market was quiet today, but ruled generally higher on covering and some fresh buying inspired by the firmness of the old crop bull party in the face of the grand jury indictments and bullish private reports concerning crop conditions both in the Eastern belt and the Southwest.

The close was steady at a net advance of 13 to 20 points. The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 4 points, which was about as due on the tables. There was early irregularity but recent sellers showed disappointment over the failure of the action of the Federal grand jury to weaken the determination of the old crop bulls and with many bullish private reports reaching the trade as to crop conditions prices gradually worked higher. The weather map showed generally clear, warm weather in the South over Sunday and conditions were believed to be favorable for an early resumption of field work in the Eastern belt, but private wires indicate that grass and weeds had secured a big start while the forecast was for a renewal of unsettled weather and showers in that section. Advice from the Southwest on the other hand claimed that Texas was badly in need of rain, and the high temperatures reported in some sections of that territory seemed to be making a bullish impression on sentiment. At any rate offerings in the local market were very light and during the afternoon the market sold up to a net advance of about 14 to 21 points. The close was within a point or two of the best. There was a little buying here during the day from Western and Southern sources while local operators appeared to be doing very little either way, the disposition being to await developments both with reference to the crop situation and as to the probable showing of the July bureau which carries the crop to June 25th and will be published at noon on July 1.

Receipts at the ports today 6,098 bales against 2,757 last year and 8,867 last year; for the week 25,000 bales against 24,531 last week and 33,550 last year.

Marvelous Discoveries.

mark the wonderful progress of the age. Air flights on heavy machines, telegrams without wires, terrible ray inventions to kill men, and that wonder of wonders—Dr. King's New Discovery—to save life when threatened by coughs, colds, laryngitis, asthma, croup, bronchitis, hemorrhage, hay fever and whooping cough or lung trouble. For all bronchial affections it has no equal. It relieves instantly. It is the surest cure. James M. Black, of Asheville, N. C., R. R. No. 4, writes it cured him of an obstinate cough after all other remedies failed. 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robt R. Bellamy.

A Woman's Great Idea is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at Robt R. Bellamy's.

FAVORABLE DAY FOR STOCKS

Increase of Animation in Speculation Follows Signing of the Railroad Bill—Jump in Wheat on the Market Yesterday.

New York, June 20.—The operators in stocks choose for the central subject of consideration today the signing by President Taft of the railroad bill and the consequent completion of contemplated legislation on that subject for the present.

The action of the wheat market brought the crop prospect into view as a containing factor and interrupted the influence of the railroad bill. There was slight increase of animation in the speculation as is evidenced by the meagre aggregate of the day's transactions, but the last prices of the day were generally the best.

The favorable effect on the tone of the market of the disposition of the railroad legislation may be due simply to a feeling of relief that it is out of the way. Some of its clauses are avowedly distasteful to the railroads as well as shippers. The immediate influence of the bill in the stock market comes from the fact that its passage will be made the signal for renewed notices of the intended increase in freight rates.

Stocks of companies whose executives are most openly dissatisfied with the situation did not diverge notably from the upward course of prices today.

Dry weather with too great heat in the Northwest over Sunday and continued today and the resultant active demand for wheat reported from that region carried a disagreeable intimation that the wheat crop is still subject to harmful contingencies. In contrast with the lately prevailing confidence in the outcome of the harvest, the jump in wheat checked the slowly rising tendency of prices of stocks, but without proving a stronger influence on the granger stocks than on the general list.

The coming July money settlements are believed to have some restraint on the stock market. Bonds were firmer. Total sales, par value, $1,455,000. United States 3s declined 1-4 point, in the bid price on call. Total stocks today were 345,300 shares.

HUBBARD BROS. LETTER.

Trading Light But Undertone Steady to Firm—Rains.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, June 20.—While trading is light, the undertone of the market is steady to firm, the usual sequence to a dull market and resulting small and nervous short interest. No new developments in old crops beyond the quiet confidence of the holders. This imparts a tone to the later months, which would be lacking otherwise.

Texas is showing seasonable heat in the Northwest, but with the steadiness in old crops there is apprehension that more rain is, or will soon be, needed. Outside interest is small at the moment.
